Chicago, Ill., July 30 .- Philadelphia anded Chicago its second defeat of the master of the locals in all but one and a single netted one run. The visltors got their first run on a base on balls, an error and a double. The winning run was made when Knabe doubled and scored on Lobert's single. Moore retired to allow Titus to bat for him, and Alexander was invincible in the two innings he relieved Moore. The features of the game were the tast double plays of the visitors and Paskert's great catch of Tinker's long fly. A large crowd was present, and ground rules were necessary. The score:
